

Admiral Arthur Phillip RN Scholarships Appeal

The Britain-Australia Society Education Trust
registered with the UK Charity Commission, number 803505

As the first Governor of New South Wales and founder of Modern Australia, Arthur Phillip used his great skills of insight, management, pragmatism and humanitarianism to overcome huge odds in founding the successful New South Wales colony. He has hitherto been under-recognised in the land of his birth. On the bicentenary of his death that is being remedied. Memorials have been installed in his home town of Bath and in the heart of Westminster Abbey, and his memory, will be perpetuated with an on-going educational bursary.

Your support for this important and lasting legacy will be welcomed and gratefully acknowledged. Please complete the form below and return it by post to us at the Britain-Australia Society Education Trust, Australia Centre, Strand, London WC2B 4LG, UK, or scan and email it to phillip@britain-australia.org.uk
